2019

Journey House provides much needed services for former foster youth who need help in finding housing, educational opportunities, employment, and counseling as they transition into independent living. All our program participants receive support and resources based on their individual needs whether it be textbooks, medical assistance, clothing, household items, but especially be of assistance when they face financial difficulties raising a family, paying bills and surviving the high cost of living in Los Angeles County.

STAFF HOURS WORKING WITH PROGRAM PARTICIPANTS

Staff hours helping with housing issues

We provide housing assistance for the wellbeing, safety and stability of our program participants. Our help includes finding an adequate place to live; guidance with the application process; some financial assistance; and furniture, appliances, and household items.

160

staff hours helping with education

We provide academic counseling, which includes school applications, registration, available scholarships, on-campus support systems, and textbooks. We encourage every student to achieve their highest educational goal, so to live a fulfilling life.

87

staff hours helping with employment

We provide employment readiness which includes career search, resume development, learning interview and job retention skills, as well as appropriate attire, language and social behavior.

659

staff hours of independent living counseling

We provide a supportive environment where youth can find encouragement and support through counseling, mentorship, and peer support. It is important for former foster youth to have a safe place where they can deal with life's struggles, financial difficulties, emotional trauma, relationships and other hardships.
